(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
DENVER, O., Feb. 26.—The President's train passed Newark, O., at 10:05 p. m.
The occupants were all up at that hour, and the face of the General was discernible at the window.
THE PEOPLE UP AND DOING.
The train was running about fifteen miles an hour as the station was passed. The crowds were assembled in as full force as though it were broad daylight.
Cheer after cheer went up, which died away in the distance as the train sped on, to be taken up again at another point.
HEAVE-HO FOR THE SMOKE CITY.
PITTSBURGH DEPOT, Pa., Feb. 26.—The new day had just begun when the train bearing President Harrison and party left Denison, O.
It was drawn thence to Pittsburgh by engine 66, manned by Barney Bauman.
Denison is a railroad town purely, and the hundred or more midnight visitors at the station were almost entirely railroad employees who were greatly disappointed at not being able to see the distinguished passenger. However, they quietly bore the facture of their visit and watched the train run down to the yard limits, where another exhilarating hot box claimed the attention and efforts of the inspector. When it had been remedied the train began its progress.
ORDERS WERE GIVEN BY Supt. Turner not to make any stops at points where it was probable crowds would congregate. In consequence the train ran through Steubenville, Mingo Junction, and other towns only a slightly reduced rate of speed, but the attention paid to its progress was feeble.
At Steubenville the train was met by a small crowd of about fifty persons, and was filled with railroad men, who waved their hats at the passing train without evoking response from any but the smoking apparatus of the combination car, where the working force of the train, in company with Supt. Turner, were seated.
TRAINERS ALL DEMONSTRATE.
The train crew from Columbus to Pittsburgh were mostly Democrats, a fact which, when known, gave rise to some good-natured rail-lery, which they bore with becoming meekness.
A heavy train in advance of the President's kept losing time and causing the latter to be frequently held up at block-signal stations until the track ahead was clear.
FROM BUCKLE UP INTO PITTSBURGH.
Twenty miles away, there was no occasion for delay, a down grade proving an advantageous first section as to its shorter successor in the matter of speed.
The blocks now growing shorter, enabled
No. 2 to overtake the regular train, and it was only a few minutes behind when Pittsburgh was reached. The train arrived at 3:35 a. m. Probably two hundred people were waiting at the depot.
THE PRESIDENT SLEEPS ON.
But if they expected to see the President elect they were disappointed, as he was sleeping soundly.
The train remained here fifteen minutes and at 8:50 a. m. pulled out of the depot for the east. Capt. Jack Pittman, who has piloted every prominent man over the Western division of the Pennsylvania road for fifteen years, had charge of the train.
ARROUSED BY A NATURAL GAS DISPLAY.
At the new city of Jeannette, a few miles beyond Pittsburgh, the slumbering travellers were aroused by the roar of natural gas wells which had been put in operation. The well in the Gravelly district had been fired before the arrival of the train, and, though a trifling display, some members of the party looked upon the grand spectacle with admiration.

WITHOUT A REQUISITION.

YOUNG WOODRUFF BROUGHT FROM NEWARK BY A NEW YORK DETECTIVE.

Edward Wilson Woodruff, of Newark, N. J., who is supposed to have been implicated in the operations of Ives & Stagner, was brought to Police Headquarters this morning from Newark by Detective Von Gerichten. No requisition was required.
He was accompanied by his father, who was dressed in a suit of gold and silver and was to take with him his father's lawyers.
He will be taken to the District Attorney's office to plead to an indictment for grand larceny.
A REWARD WAITING.
The Boy Who Brought This Draft Can Collect It.
WILL THE YOUNG MAN who found draft on London in exchange and returned same to his place call. John M. Harris & Co., 20 College place.
Mr. George Harris, in speaking of the above advertisement this morning, said:
"We received a draft for a small amount from a firm in Melbourne, Australia, on London. On Saturday afternoon we sent it to our brokers to be sold. It was delivered in the afternoon, but, being after banking time, it was not to be disposed of on Monday morning.
In some way the draft was lost. It was made out in blank and was indorsed with the firm name.
"This boy picked it up and seeing only our name on it he brought it away across board, told us where he had found it and immediately. We wished to reward him for his honesty and we took this means to find him."

He is demented and is applying for work, artistic or otherwise, from house to house.
A general alarm to look out for him was sent out from Police Headquarters to-day.
The picture printed with the story in yesterday's EVENING WORLD led to the discovery of his condition and his presence in this locality.

MR. NICOLL IS BACK AGAIN.

AND THE MARKET STAND INVESTIGATION GOES ON.

The Comptroller Has Promised Immunity to Stand-Holders Who May Testify, but Poor Kelly Don't Get His Permit—More Interesting Testimony and Something About "A Widow."

Mr. De Lancey Nicoll appeared before the Commissioners of Accounts this morning and announced that he was ready to proceed with the new West Washington Market investigation.
He had accepted the retainer of the Corporation Counsel to act as counsel for the Commission, as Comptroller Myers had granted immunity from revocation of their permits to stand-holders who may confess on the witness stand to having secured their privileges by bribery or through blackmail.
The first witness called was Hirsch Frank, a wholesale butcher, who owned two stands in the old market and secured stands in the new market after a great deal of difficulty.
Witness said that he called at the Comptroller's office fifty times and got no satisfaction.
His neighbors in the market were receiving notices of the granting of their permits daily, and Mr. Frank was afraid that he was to be left out in the allotment.
He accordingly went to S. Kaufman, a marshal in the Personal Tax Bureau of the Finance Department, and related his trouble.

TWELVE ROUNDS IN BLOOD.

THE FIERCE BATTLE WHICH TOMMY BARNES WON THIS MORNING.

The forty odd sports who gathered around the ring-side for the Barnes-Daly battle, which was decided this morning on a dancing pavilion not far from Fort Schuyler, must have seen enough bloodshed to do them for a lifetime.
The battle was of the hurricane order, give and take, all through its twelve rounds, and ended in Barnes being declared victor through the deadly knock-out blow.
The fight was arranged by a well-known sporting man of this city, who put up the stakes of $200, and the spectators subscribed a purse of $300 more, of which $50 went to the loser.
Tommy Barnes is well known to the followers of pugilistic events, and has fought many ring encounters, his most notable being with Tommy Warren, who recently defeated Jack Havin for the feather-weight championship. He is about thirty-two years of age, is 5 feet 8 inches in height, and weighs 125 pounds.
Daly is from Providence, is twenty-two years of age, 5 feet 6 inches tall, and weighed 125 pounds.
Charley Kerrigan, the horse owner, was chosen referee.
It was 8 o'clock when the ring was in readiness and it was illuminated with lanterns.
The extreme cold which prevailed had little effect on the party, for the fight was so hot and furious that coldness was an outside question.
Barnes did the opening, landing on the face. Daly got his right to work with gory effect, and when the first round was over both men showed signs of hard work.
Each succeeding round the fight became more desperate and brutal.
Barnes had the most escape, but his opponent was game enough to make things very even.
In the eighth round the fighting was something terrible. Both men smashed away with energy and pluck, and by landing a blow in the eighth round on the face of his opponent he had won the fight.
In the last round the men were a pitiful sight, all cut, bruised and bleeding freely.
Barnes then got in a blow on the neck which sent poor Daly to the ground fairly and cleanly knocked out.
The time of the battle was 46 minutes 28 seconds.
